

Brides' bulletin

All the latest from around the county

A decadent occasion

Tea-licious is a new company providing afternoon tea parties across the county. Run by Maxine Gregory, the venture was a natural progression from her vintage crockery hire service. Why not have an afternoon hen party and get the girls together to talk about your upcoming nuptials? As well as a selection of sandwiches, tea and cakes, brides-to-be can choose from a range of activities to take part in, such as tea leaf reading, beauty packages or burlesque lessons. With the vintage trend being all the rage at the moment, a pop-up party will certainly get your guests talking. For more information, telephone 01634 721 850.

WORN WITH LOVE

Lovett & Co is proud to announce the launch of a new jewellery collection with a retro twist, now being stocked at Fenwicks, Canterbury. The pieces are already a hit with celebs on BBC's Strictly Come Dancing, and the inspiration behind the pieces comes from the 1920s era and stretches through to the '50s. The range includes pearl necklaces, diamanté earrings and art deco-inspired lockets. For more information, telephone 01273 230 114 or visit www.lovettandco.co.uk

www.magnophotography.co.uk

DATE FOR THE DIARY

Introducing a brand new wedding show from Clarion Events – Wedding Week at Bluewater, held on 9th to 12th of February, 2012. Featuring exhibitors, wedding planners, stylists and more, the event will offer brides and grooms plenty of ideas for the big day. The latest bridal trends will also be displayed on the catwalk and the wedding workshops will have plenty of top tips and hints. To find out more, visit www.weddingweekatbluewater.com

On the move

Els Design has recently moved from Berkshire to Tunbridge Wells, Kent. The stationery company was founded in 2004 by creative director Emma-Louise Saunders and produces intricate handcrafted 3D designs as well as traditional invitations. Since the move, Els Design has been working closely with some of the county's top venues as well as showcasing the range at some of Kent's finest wedding fairs. To find out more, telephone 01892 531 348, or visit the website www.els-design.com